

Join with UU Congregation of Atlanta

July 4, 2021 – 10:45 am

"What is Independence to a Prison Nation"

During our Summer Series of River of Grass Classics, we will be refreshing some favorite services that took place in the past year. As Rev. Amy is away for the summer months, we have nine more weeks to explore some old and new experiences on Sunday morning. Some lay led, some from Rev. Amy and, yes, there will be an opportunity for you to join other congregations on Sunday mornings to experience their worship services. A full schedule is on the River of Grass website.

This Sunday, we invite you to the UU Congregation of Atlanta for their Sunday morning worship service. Please log on at 10:45 so you will be "on time"!

Message Topic: "What is Independence to a Prison Nation"

Speaker: Rev. Jason Lydon

The Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Atlanta (UUCA) is one of the largest Unitarian Universalist congregations in the United States, with roots in Atlanta going back more than 120 years. A community of faith that encourages and supports the individual spiritual quests of its members, who share a respect for the inherent worth and dignity of every person and a commitment to social justice. UUCA's 700 members and contributing friends hail from all corners of the Atlanta area and represent many diverse backgrounds.
