

River of Grass UU Congregation

March 26, 2023 – 10:30 AM

All of Us Need All of Us

All of us need all of us to make it.

– Rev. Theresa Ninán Soto

On this final Sunday of our month-long exploration of vulnerability, we'll gather within the interconnections of our lives, our congregation, our communities, and our humanity to consider how we need one another in the Interdependent Web of Life we share (our 7th Unitarian Universalist Principle). What does it mean to help one another? What does it mean to answer the world's call for love, justice, and hope? What does it mean to learn how to not only extend a hand, but to reach for one – not only to be a friend, but to need one – not only to see need before us, but to see need within us ... and be willing to have it known? With all that we do not know, one thing we know for sure: it takes all of us for any of us to make it.

Come as you are – either in-person at the Old Davie Schoolhouse Heritage Hall or virtually on Zoom. We welcome you on Sunday morning at 10:30. Come a bit before and we can Chat prior to the service... We'll be watching for you!
